

The Pitt News

2009-2010 Graphic Designer / Illustrator Application

The Pitt News * c/o Layout Editor Shannon McCurdy * 434 William Pitt Union

By producing the art that accompanies print content in The Pitt News, illustrators contribute greatly to the newspaper. Illustrators work on a variety of projects including cover illustrations, comic and editorial cartoons, magazine layouts, info graphics and online content.

Illustrators at The Pitt News come from a number of artistic backgrounds. The large variety of content that we publish allows us to utilize hand-drawn illustrations, digital illustrations and more data-oriented graphics like charts and graphs.

Name: _____

Year (circle): Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior

Intended Major: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

To apply, please attach:

- Your current resume
- Three samples of work

Applications may be submitted electronically to Shannon McCurdy at tpnlayout@gmail.com or dropped off on the fourth floor of the William Pitt Union or mailed to:

The Pitt News
c/o Shannon McCurdy, Layout Editor
434 William Pitt Union
Pittsburgh, PA 15260

*You must be a full-time student at the University of Pittsburgh with a minimum 2.5 QPA to apply for the position. Editors at The Pitt News are prohibited from maintaining affiliations with political organizations in order to avoid conflicts of interest. We welcome applications from students of all backgrounds and seek a diverse staff.

The Pitt News

2009-2010 Graphic Designer / Illustrator Application

Do you have experience in the following? (circle all that apply): Other: _____

Comics Photoshop InDesign Illustrator Quark Other: _____

What specific position are you applying for? What other related experience do you have?

Why do you feel you would be a good addition to The Pitt News staff?

How would this work to serve your long term goals?

Any additional comments?
